HOTEL MARUE

5 minutes walk from Kamaishi Station. Free light breakfast including rice balls, miso soup, and coffee. Bathing facilities (sauna: men only) are also available. All rooms are equipped with a 32 inch television (VOD), wired LAN, and free WiFi.

Go wherever you want and check it out! You can discover how Kamaishi is such an interesting place!

You are standing at the doorway to get into "Kamaishi's Deep Cultural Zone"

You can find both the New and the Old Kamaishi with this map.

Try to find!

- "Tiger Dance (Toramai)" is the folkloric entertainment of Kamaishi.
- "Daikannon" is 48.5 meters tall statue of the Buddhist goddess of mercy.
- "Steam Locomotive" Historically, the railway line of Kamaishi city was the third to be opened in Japan. "SL GINGA" currently operates.
- "Landscape of Chimneys" Kamaishi Steelworks was the first steelworks factory in Japan. It looks like a "steampunk" town.
- "The Gentleman with the Flag" He is "The Father of the Modern Steel Industry of Japan". His statue stands in front of Kamaishi station.
- "Rugby Stadium" Kamaishi is a City of Rugby. International rugby competition was held here
- "Yakushi Park" During WWII, Kamaishi was bombed many times because of the ironworks factories. Inside the park is a statue dedicated to peace.
